1 of 1 review helpful Great go to book for gardeners By tulipfrills Great go to book for gardeners I purchased it years ago over seas and have never been disappointed Once stateside I compared it with the American version but opted to keep mine Since then the British author Christopher Brickell has published an american verison I actually buy anything with Christopher Brickell s name on it He is my go to for informa An extra eight page section highlights 200 individual plants selected by the RHS to carry their Award of Garden Merit and marked with a symbol throughout the text
