2 of 2 review helpful Good for the Northeast as Well By Pogo I live in upstate New York and couldn t find a book like this for my area but this one is just fine since it covers my zone zone 5 I have other perennial books but this one is one of my favorites because it gives quite a bit of information on each plant including a good description the common and Latin name a color picture growing conditions how to propaga Gardeners everywhere want to grow perennials But with its hot humid summers and often bitterly cold winters the Midwest presents a formidably challenging climate This book provides concise experience tested information about popular perennials including herbs ornamental grasses and bulbs that can be grown successfully throughout a wide range of the midwestern United States Illinois Indiana Iowa Michigan Missouri Minnesota Ohio and Wisconsin Fro Idquo Make your next garden easy elegant and error free when you design it with plants in this book Perennials for Midwestern Gardens is a detailed encyclopedia that takes the guesswork out of perennial plant selection rdquo nbsp mdash Iowa H
