2 of 3 review helpful Excellent Service Book Lacks Coverage By Andrew J Rochells Excellent vendor service The book itself lacks coverage of some basic garden perennials such as echinacea and actea The absence of coverage surprised me 4 of 4 review helpful This is an excellent reference for any gardener who wants a detailed encyclopedia at their disposal By D Fowler How to choose the best from over 1 300 annuals and perennials The choice of annuals and perennials at any nursery is overwhelming to say the least Annuals and Perennials contains all the information needed to make the right choice from the enormous number of plants available With its compact and easy to use format the book is perfect to take along to the nursery Using the comprehensive plant selection tables gar The authors and publisher should be congratulated for their brilliant idea of dividing this plant encyclopedia into two volumes according to the types of plants The handy size and plastic cover of the books make them ideal for fieldwork as well as indoor re
