1 of 1 review helpful Warrior Mountain Treasure By Deborah S I have been researching my ancestry for a few years now and upon learning that several of my ancestors lived in the Warrior Mountains region of Alabama I purchased the book Warrior Mountains Folklore I have found it both fascinating and helpful in my research efforts The book is well researched and takes full advantage of the rich oral tradition that is so m Many years ago Rickey Butch Walker took his tape recorder and camera and systematically began interviewing some of the oldest living descendants of the pioneer families of the Warrior Mountains of northwest Alabama No price can be put on the stories that he recorded He captured snapshots of Americana and family history that would have been lost forever These historical sketches and photographs will be revered forever by the descendants of the families who lived on
